Barcelona, October 15, N. S.

ON Friday the 12th Inſtant the Marqueſs de Mari arrived here from Cadiz with Six large Ships and a Frigate, being Part of the Spaniſh Fleet which is to attend the Introduction of the Troops of this Nation into Tuſcany; and Sig. Cornejo, who has been within Sight of this Place ever ſince the Marqueſs's Arrival with the Ships from Galicia, being the remaining Part of which the Fleet is to conſiſt, came to an Anchor here about Nine a-Clock Yeſterday Morning. The frequent Calms that we have had in theſe Seas ſince the Beginning of this Month, have been the Occaſion of their not getting hither ſooner. The Spaniſh Fleet now conſiſts of 20 Men of War, from 48 or 50 Guns, to 80. Upon the Marqueſs de Mari's Arrival, Orders were immediately ſent to the Troops which have been cantoned ſome Time ſince in this Neighbourhood, to march immediately to this Place, in order to their Embarcation, which has been carrying on with ſuch Diligence, that they will all be on board To-morrow; and it is expected, the Fleet will put to Sea in the Evening, to take the Advantage of the Land Breeze, which uſually blows at that Time.

Hague, Oct. 30, N. S. The King of Morocco refuſing to ratify the Treaty which had been ſettled here with Admiral Perez, it has been ſignified to that Admiral that he might depart from hence; which he did this Morning; and is gone to Amſterdam, there to imbark for the Streights. We have Advice, that the King of Poland is ſet out from Dreſden for his Kingdom; and that Sir Luke Schaub was preparing to return to England. He is expected here in a few Days; as is alſo Major-General Sutton from Caſſel.

Dublin Caſtle, October 12.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of their Majeſties Coronation, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments upon Duty, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown-Green. At Noon there was a very numerous Appearance of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction to compliment his Grace the Lord Lieutenant upon that Occaſion: After which his Grace, attended with the Guard of Battle-Axes, and a Squadron of Horſe, made a Tour upon the Strand. In the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy. A Play was given by his Grace for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and after the Play, there was a Ball at the Caſtle, and a magnificent Supper in four ſeveral Rooms, where a vaſt Number of Perſons of both Sexes were entertained with the utmoſt Elegance and Regularity.

Hampton-Court, October 23.

Yeſterday being the Birth-Day of Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal, there was a ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and Gentry, and Foreign Miniſters, who complimented Her Royal Highneſs on that Occaſion. The ſame Day his moſt Serene Highneſs the Duke of Lorrain was entertained at Dinner, with ſeveral of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters, in a moſt magnificent Manner, by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, at Clermont.
